

Bella Terra of Gulf Shores named one of Best RV Parks in America

Greg Gerber posted on December 08, 2009 12:03

McLEAN, Va. -- Best Parks in America announced today that Bella Terra of Gulf Shores, located in Gulf Shores, Ala., has been designated as one of the Best Parks in America. The resort is the newest affiliate of Best Parks, a national network of highly rated, premier RV resorts and campgrounds.

Bella Terra is an exclusive Class A RV resort located on the "Emerald Coast" just minutes from the Gulf of Mexico. Situated on 40 pristine acres, the resort opened in November 2009 and is receiving the highest ratings and recognition from within the industry as well as from guests and visitors to the resort. The 176 site resort offers fully deeded ownership as well as a rental resort component that allows for daily, weekly, and long term rental opportunities.

"We have worked tirelessly for almost three years to create what we hope to be the 'best of breed' in a family of RV resort communities and we're truly excited to be recognized and in the company of the Best Parks in America," said Tripp Keber, executive vice president of business development for Sagebrush Realty Development.

Bella Terra has been recognized with top honors from Woodall's, Good Sam Club, and Trailer Life Directory, and most recently Wheeler's RV Resort Guide making Bella Terra one of the highest rated resorts in the country.

Bella Terra offers a long list of amenities including a grand clubhouse with a resort style infinity edge pool, a large heated spa and outdoor barbeque, a 9-acre centerpiece lake with gazebo, a putting green, bocce ball court and horse-shoe pit as well as areas designated for pets.

In addition to these popular outdoor amenities, Bella Terra sports a fully appointed fitness center, a business center with free internet access, WIFI access throughout the resort, washer/dryer facilities located in the "en-suite" bathhouses, a large catering kitchen as well as a private movie theatre available to all guests and owners for public and private viewing occasions.

"The addition of Bella Terra to the Best Parks in America family of outstanding RV resorts and campgrounds is a significant milestone for BPA," said David Gorin, president of Best Parks in America, Inc. "We're proud to add this beautiful new resort to the Best Parks network and know that RVers will be thrilled with this great place to vacation along Alabama's Gulf coast."

"We believe we are setting a new standard for facilities, service, and amenities that many RVers look for in a resort," said Chuck Smith, president of Bella Terra Realty Holdings, LLC. "We are thrilled to set the standard for resort developers and believe we are in fine company with the other resorts that constitute Best Parks in America."

Best Parks in America is a national organization of America's highly rated RV parks and campgrounds. There are 28 affiliated resorts in 16 states and new parks are becoming part of the expanding network each week. A complete listing of resorts can be found at www.bestparks.com.